

Dennis F. McCafferty, CFA

Managing Director and Portfolio Manager
Manulife Asset Management

Dennis F. McCafferty, CFA, is a managing director and portfolio manager at Manulife Asset Management, working on the company's High Yield Fixed Income, Floating Rate and Special Opportunities Equity Strategies. He has expertise investing across capital structures with a fundamental valuation approach. He also focuses on distressed credit opportunities for the firm. Prior to joining the company, he was a principal and senior analyst at Pardus Capital Management, a New York based hedge fund. Earlier in his career, Dennis served as a senior equity analyst at Griffen-Rose, an investment analyst at W.R. Huff Asset Management, and in various positions at Ford Motor Credit Company. Dennis is a CFA charterholder.

Education: The College of New Jersey, BS in Finance, 1995; Villanova University, MBA, 1999.

Joined Company: 2008

Began Career: 1995